

Rainer Walz (Prof. Dr.) is Deputy Director of Fraunhofer Institute for Systems and Innovation Research ISI in Karlsruhe, and Head of the Competence Center Sustainability and Infrastructure within ISI. He studied Economics and Political Science at the University of Freiburg and at Brock University, Canada. PhD and "habilitation" in economics. Prior employment includes the University of Wisconsin, and the Enquête Commission "Protecting the Earth's Atmosphere" of the German Bundestag. He has been visiting research fellow at the University of Sussex and Invited Professor at the University of Strasbourg. Since 2012, he is professor in economics at Karlsruhe Institute of Technology and Guest Professor at the Chinese Academy of Science - Institute for Science and Development. Member of various national and international expert groups. His personal research fields include lead markets and competitiveness of industry, sustainability innovations, and interaction between economic development, globalization, and industrial policy.